Pirates Remain Second In Latest NCAA Soccer Region Rankings

Posted: Oct 27, 2010

SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong Atlantic State women's soccer squad is ranked second in the latest NCAA Southeast Region rankings, released Wednesday by the region ranking committee. These rankings determine who advances to the 2010 NCAA Division II Women's Soccer Championships.

The Pirates (12-1-2) trail only Columbus State (14-1-1) in the rankings as CSU moved from third to first in the latest poll. UNC Pembroke (12-1-2) remained third while last week's top-ranked team, Belmont Abbey (14-1-1), moved to fourth. Lenoir-Rhyne (12-2-1) is fifth and North Georgia (12-3) is sixth.

Wingate (8-2-3), Pfeiffer (10-5), Lander (8-6-1) and Carson-Newman (9-5) round out the top ten. Three automatic bids from the Peach Belt, Conference Carolinas and South Atlantic Conferences plus three at-large bids will comprise the six-team Southeast Regional, to be selected in November.

AASU has a 3-0-1 record against the regionally-ranked squads that appear in this week's poll. To view the complete DII Regional Rankings, click here.

AASU has advanced to the NCAA Championships in three of the last four seasons, including last season's trip to the "Sweet 16."

The Pirates are next in action on Saturday evening with a 7:00 p.m. non-conference matchup at nationally-ranked Rollins in Winter Park, Fla.
